

10 FAST FACTS for Small RVs

So you're thinking about hitting the open road and changing your lifestyle? Here are 10 fast facts to help you decide if RVing and a smaller recreational vehicle are right for you!

$55

is the average daily cost to vacation in your own small RV!

3 Growing RV Trends Perfect for Small RV Owners

1

RVers are traveling more, over shorter distances

2

RVers are traveling more on weekends

3

RVers are setting off on a trip with less planning

Small RVs range from 10-25 feet in length and include pop-ups, truck campers, camper vans, travel trailers, and class C motor coaches.

ZZZ

Small hybrid RVs expand for more sleeping space and could be up to 27 feet in length when fully opened up.

10%

10% of RVs sold by RV Wholesale Superstore in Sylvania, Ohio are in the small category, with those owners returning to trade-up within two years.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

At RV Wholesale Superstore, we love what we do. If you have questions about RVs, financing, where to start, or the RV community in general, contact us online or call us at 855-796-2333. We'd love to chat!

RESOURCES:

- Recreational Vehicle Industry Association
- RVInsurance.org
- Statista.com
- Time Inc., Money Magazine

There are approximately 9 million RVs on the road today!

More than 40 million Americans go camping each year.

On average, campers spend 40 days per year using their RV.

2015

More than 379,000 RVs were sold and shipped in 2015.

There are approximately 7,500 public-owned and 8,500 private owned campgrounds in the United States.

80% of all RVs are manufactured in Elkhart County, Indiana.